We know you enjoy the convenience and ambience of the facilities at the Adelaide Oval, so we are back there again this year. This year we have included a first State of the Nation address by Deputy President Magistrate Cole, together with sessions on Employer/Employee issues arising when claims are accepted and leave payments are involved, a medico-legal session, managing clients who descend into self-harm and self-destructive behaviour (from a practical and ethical perspective), an analysis of the leading cases in the section 18 jurisdiction and our very popular case law update.

The Seminar is always great value for money and includes a lunch in the Ian McLachlan Room overlooking the Oval. Two of our recent presenters have just been appointed to the SAET so we must be doing something right!
