Attendances at SAET – Coronavirus (COVID-19) Pandemic responses – 23 November 2020

The Attendances at SAET – Coronavirus (COVID-19) Pandemic responses – 19 November 2020 communique is rescinded.

As of Monday 23 November 2020, in accordance with South Australian Government advice and directions with regards to the recent Covid-19 cluster outbreak, the Tribunal is adopting the following practices.

Criteria for attending SAET in-person

Anyone attending SAET in-person must meet the Criteria for attending SAET in-person. The criteria is available at <https://www.saet.sa.gov.au/about-saet-3/covid-19/>

Matters before Commissioners

Until further notice, all scheduled hearings and conference, including those scheduled to be conducted in-person, will be conducted by teleconference.

Matters before Presidential Members

Unless advised by the Tribunal, hearings and conferences will be conducted as scheduled. All queries should be directed to the individual chambers.

Review

We will continue to review our position in accordance with changing circumstances, updated Australian and State government protocols and the advice of health experts.
